

Women United

Women United is at the forefront of United Way's movement to build stronger communities. Join a diverse group of women leaders who are engaged with philanthropy, volunteerism and advocacy.

Our women leaders fight for the health, education, and financial stability of every person in every community and are dedicated to helping low-income women and their families move out of poverty.

With a minimum of $1,000 directed to United Way's poverty-fighting programs, Women United is committed to creating lasting change in Ventura County.

Member Benefits

Women United members make a meaningful difference in our community. Benefits of this powerful group include exclusive volunteer experiences, networking events, professional development and more.

- ✓ Access to a network of committed, passionate philanthropists
- ✓ Invitations to member events, luncheons and speaker series
- ✓ Recognition as a leader in the fight against Ventura County poverty, including special recognition in UWVC's Annual Report
- ✓ Unique volunteer activities that contribute to ending the cycle of poverty

For United Way, whose unique role is bringing people together to solve community problems, women leaders are essential to accelerating lasting change.
