VENTURA COUNTY

Women United is an affinity group within United Way's strategic platform. The main focus of Women United is supporting single-mothers in need in Ventura County who are committed to improving their station in life.

Women United members make a meaningful difference in our community. Benefits of this powerful group include exclusive volunteer experiences, networking events, professional development and more.

Women United is at the forefront of United Way's movement to build stronger communities. Join a diverse group of women leaders who are engaged with philanthropy, volunteerism and advocacy.

Our women leaders fight for the health, education, and financial stability of every person in every community and are dedicated to helping low-income women and their families move out of poverty.

For United Way, whose unique role is bringing people together to solve community problems, women leaders are essential to accelerating lasting change.

DID YOU KNOW?

To support 1 child, a single-parent in Ventura County needs to earn $23.96 per hour and with 2 children, $27.59. Jobs that pay this much generally require advance degrees or specialized skills and experience.

And, in Ventura County, 38% of female households with children ages 5 and under are living below the poverty level, while 27.5% of female households with a high school diploma are living in poverty.

Women United is dedicated to supporting single-mothers by empowering them through financial capability and education. United Way's Women United are committed to helping bridge single-mothers to a successful future to create lasting change in Ventura County.
